OBJECTIVES

The objectives of Scouting are, according to the Charter and Bylaws under which the movement operates, character development, citizenship training, mental and physical fitness. Leaders and boys of all races, creeds, and colors subscribe to the Oath and Promise: which reads in part: "On my honor I will do my duty to God and my country" and the 12th point of the Scout Law which reads "A Scout is reverent. He is reverent towards God. He is faithful in his religious duties and respects the convictions of others in matters of custom and religion."

Do you as a prospective National Jamboree Scoutmaster understand and accept these principles? (Please initial)
