

History of Wood Badge

Lord Robert Baden-Powell founded Scouting early in the 20th century, and in just a few short years, the movement exploded. Baden-Powell quickly recognized the need for adult leaders to complete training in a hands-on outdoor environment.

On Monday, September 8, 1919, 20 men clad in shorts and knee socks gathered around a flagpole at Gilwell Field near London. Organized into three Patrols, these men launched the precursor for what eventually has become Wood Badge for the 21st Century.

Baden-Powell's Scouting for Boys and Aids to Scoutmastership were 'textbooks' for this outdoor classroom, and during the 11 day course, the Scouters learned the skills to pass on to their eager Scouts: Troop organization, campcraft, pioneering, woodcraft, signcraft, games, fieldwork, study circle work and pathfinding.

Upon completion of the course, Baden-Powell awarded each of the Scouters a hand-carved bead tied to a leather thong, the beads a prize he collected from Zulu Chief Dinizulu during the British' Ashanti Campaign in 1888.

The Boy Scouts of America conducted its first official Wood Badge course in the United States in 1948. Since that time, training professionals and volunteers have updated the Wood Badge syllabus to provide the best methods to adult Scouters for teaching leadership and program delivery.

What is the purpose of Wood Badge?

The ultimate purpose of Wood Badge is to help adult leaders deliver the highest quality Scouting program to young people to help them achieve their highest potential.

It models the best techniques for developing leadership and teamwork among both young people and adults.

How much time will Wood Badge take?

Wood Badge is conducted over two, three-day weekends. Each weekend begins at 8 a.m. Friday and end Sunday around 5 p.m. Your patrol will have one or two meetings scheduled at your convenience between weekend sessions.

Where is Wood Badge held?

The two weekends of the Wood Badge Training will be held at Lost Bayou Scout Camp located in St. Landry, LA.

How will Wood Badge help me?

Wood Badge will teach you outdoor skills and leadership techniques in a 'living,' hands-on environment, and you will be able to apply all you learn to your Scouting involvement and your personal life.

You'll develop a Ticket, which is a written agreement outlining how you will apply your newly learned skills as you continue your involvement in Scouting.

Development of your Ticket is an exercise in goal-setting and includes creating a personal vision and mission statement and outlining individual steps to personal success.

How do I get my beads?

You're probably seen other Scouters wearing their Wood Badge beads. When you successfully complete your Ticket, some of your Wood Badge staff members will present you with your Wood Badge beads, a tan neckerchief with the famed MacLaren tartan, a leather 'woggle' (neckerchief slide) and a special Wood Badge certificate.

What are the qualifications?

Wood Badge is not just for Scoutmasters. It's for adult Scouters at all levels: Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Varsity, Venture, District and Council. Here are the qualifications:

- Be a registered member of the Boy Scouts of America.
- Complete basic training courses for your primary Scouting position.
- Complete the outdoor skills training program appropriate to your Scouting position. (1)
- Be capable of functioning safely in an outdoor environment.
- Submit a current BSA Annual Health and Medical Record (within last 12 months).

Graduates of previous courses are not eligible to participate.

What facilities are available?

Your first weekend will be easy going tent camping in Lost Bayou's spacious campsites. Restrooms with showers are available. Weekend two will be spent in an outback backpacking camping site of Lost Bayou.

What do I eat?

You'll be welcomed the first weekend at the dining hall of Lost Bayou with a spread prepared by our friendly quartermaster staff.

The following weekend, your patrol will return the favor by hosting Wood Badge staff members in your campsite.

If you have any dietary restrictions, please tell your Wood Badge Course Director before the first weekend, and we'll be happy to accommodate your needs.

What do I wear?

Participants are required to wear a full Field (Class A) Uniform. You will be issued a Wood Badge Course T-Shirt, cap and neckerchief upon arrival at camp.

What is the course registration fee?

The individual fee for attending Wood Badge is $200, which includes all your meals, course materials, and those coveted Wood Badge beads.

How do I register?

Visit www.eacbsa.org, complete the online registration form and use a credit card to make your payment or download an application. Applications are also available at the Evangeline Area Council office.
